This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. EXTRACTS FROM RECORDS.

272 Pleas between the Abbat of Robertsbridge and Ralph de Freningeham.

16 Oct. 1265. Letter obligatory from Roger the Abbat for payment to Ralph of 100*s.* every year at Easter. Dated at Robertsbridge, the Friday before the feast of St: Luke the Evangelist, 1265.

12 March, 1274. Letter from Ralph de Freningham quitclaiming to the monks the above debt and yearly pension. Dated at Freninggeham, Pope Gregory's day, 1274.

Proceedings of the Plea.

27 Jan. 1286. Memorandum that on the quinzaine of St: Hillary, 14 E. 1, Master Ralph de Freningham and the Abbat of Robertsbridge present themselves after a judicial writ of Pone per vadios, &c., and by prayer of the parties a day is given for the morrow of St: John the Baptist, on which day the Abbat essoigns himself, and a day is given for the morrow of St: Martin. On the morrow of St: Martin both parties appear, and at their prayer a day is given when the justices itinerant come into Sussex.

1284. Pleas at Westminster before Thomas de Weyland and others, justices de Banco. Easter term, 12 E. 1, nearly at the end of the Roll (Sussex). The jury come to recognise whether a virgate of land in Salherst is frankalmoign appurtenant to the church of Brightling, whereof Iterus de Ingolism is parson, or a lay fee of the Abbey of Robertsbridge; whereon Iterus says that Rorerus his predecessor, formerly parson of the said church, was seized of the land in right thereof in the time of King Richard by taking the esplees, and afterwards alienated it. The Abbat appears by his attorney and says that Iterus has no right to it as appurtenant to his church, because he is seized of a yearly rent of 6*s*. by virtue of an agreement dated 1195 and made between the Abbey and St: Mary's Church, Hastings, in which Iterus is canon, and of which the church of Brightling is a prebend to which Iterus claims the land to be frankalmoign; and the agreement is produced. Afterwards the said Abbat says that the land is his lay fee and not frankalmoign appurtenant to the church of Brightling, and he thereupon puts himself on the country: Iterus likewise: therefore let a jury be had; it is respited to the octaves of St: John the Baptist for default of jurors, on which day the jury come and say on oath that the said tenement is a lay fee of the Abbat and not frankalmoign of the church of Iterus of Brightling. So let Iterus take nothing by his writ, but be in mercy for false claim.

1284. In a plea between Henry de Setelescumbe and Geoffrey de la Cumbe concerning 4 messuages, 20 acres of land, and 2 acres of meadow in Iwerst, the jury say on their oath that the tenements are a lay fee of the Abbat and not frankalmoign appurtenant to the church of Ierus de Brythling; so it is decreed that Ierus take nothing by his writ, but be in mercy for false claim.

Note that this plea was for the land of Egelintune, for which a rent of 12*d.* is paid to the church of Brihtlinge together with 6*s.* which we pay yearly to the same church for the land of Ierkneselle and of Elam.

1284. Pleas at Westminster before Thomas de Weylond and others, justices de Banco, Easter term, 12 E. 1. At nearly the end of the roll is this memorandum, 'When this plea was before the Bench in London, King Edward was in Wales in the 12th year of his reign, 1284, and subdued all Wales and did with it as he pleased, Lewyn Prince of Wales having been slain in battle, 1283, and his brother David the same year taken and imprisoned and after Michaelmas of the same year basely condemned to death at Shrewsbury and the magnates of the kingdom invited to the spectacle.'

1284. This document relates to the pleas between the Abbat of Robertsbridge and Iterus de Ingolism, and between Henry de Setelescumbe and Geoffrey de la Cumbe, and the matter is all contained in Nos. 273, 274.

276

1284 Memorandum that 12 E. 1 in the octaves of St: John the Baptist on the 4th day the jury come before the justices at Westminster, viz: Thomas de Welilond and John de Lovetot, knights (William de Brumton, clerk, assisting them), and Lord I. de Kyrkebi then treasurer of the king's exchequer, in a plea between Iterus de Engolism, plaintiff, and the Abbat of Robertsbridge, defendant, concerning a virgate of land in Salherst and 4 messuages 50 acres of land and 2½ of meadow in Ywherst, and they recognise that the premises are a lay fee of the Abbat, and not frankalmoign appurtenant to the church of Brithling of which Iterus is parson. These are the names of the jury: Lord William de Echingeham, Lord Roger de Leuekenor, knights, Robert de Passele, Simon de Cattefeld, Ralph de Rademelde, Adam de Selvestrode, Saer de Bosey, Hamo de Stokk, John de Bromham, John atte Grove, Stephen de Diksterne, Robert de Burton.

Memorandum that we were seized of the rent comprised in the above charter by the hands of John de Vitele, afterwards of William de Hollington, and lastly of William de Hastinges when he first purchased the land of Sutilande out of which the rent issues; he ceased to pay the rent, and a distress was made of 2 cows which he thereupon replevied in the Sussex County Court in the time of Walter Abbat of Robertsbridge; the said Walter appeared at the first court, and William de Hastings made satisfaction before the second, both as to the rent and the arrears, viz: on the Saturday next after the Feast of the Holy Cross, 11 E. 1, in the hall of the Abbey, paying 19*d.* into the Abbat's own hands in the presence of William de Borstall and Reginald the monk, Nicholas Wasselyn, Clement at that time marshal to the Abbat of Battle, John de Bugesell, and John de Suntinges.

Meanwhile, as is said and before satisfaction was made, the said William sold the land of Sutilande to James Paulyn, who being distrained caused replevin of his cattle to be made at the court of the Earl of Richmond in the Rape of Hastings, whereupon the Abbat by writ, provided under the new statutes, removed the plea from that court to the bench.

The writ which the Abbat brought. [Record recorded by the Sheriff.]

4th June, 1286. R: de Pevenes, Sheriff of Sussex, 4 discreet knights of the county being associated with him, viz: William de Echingham, William Maufe, William de Hastings, and Robert Lyvet, on Tuesday in Pentecost week, 14 E. 1, in full court of John of Brittanny, Earl of Richmond, of the Rape of Hastings, recorded a suit which is before the same court between James Paulyn and the Abbat of Robertsbridge and others in the writ named, concerning the said James' cattle taken, &c: and it is recorded as follows:— 'James Paulyn complains of the Abbat of Robertsbridge John de Bertlinde and Benedict le Messer, concerning his cattle taken and unjustly detained. Sureties, Martin de Cliveshend and Reginald le Rede.'

And it is to be known that James Paulyn in full court as aforesaid came and said that the Abbat and John and Henry took his cattle at La Berndedune on the fee of the Prior of Hastings and not upon the Abbat's fee, and moreover they took the said James' cattle at Sotilande on the fee of the Prior of Hastings and not on the Abbat's fee. And the said Abbat came and said that he took the said James' cattle by the hands of John de Bertland in Sotilonde on his own fee, for the customs and services due to him for the said tenement, viz: 19*d.* rent in arrear; and at another time he sought to take other cattle of the said James by the hands of Benedict le Messer, in Sotilonde, on his own fee for the customs and services aforesaid.

Proceeding of the Plea.

8 July, 1286. Memorandum that on the quinzaine of St: John the Baptist, 14 E. 1, was the first day, at which time both parties were essoigned and a day was given them for the quinzaine of St: Martin.

25 Nov. 1286. On the quinzaine of St: Martin both parties appeared, and at their prayer they had a day for the quinzaine of St: Hillary.

27 Jan. 1287. Memorandum that at the first day the Abbat made his attorney, William Godfrey or Adam Roswist.

And John de Berglynde and Benedict le Messer made their attorney, Adam Roswist or William de Wyvekehame.

27 Jan. 1287. Memorandum that on the quinzaine of St: Hillary James Paullyn appeared in person, and the Abbat of Robertsbridge by attorney, and by prayer of the parties a day was given them for a month from Easter at the instance of Richard Gosefeld.

3 May, 1287. On which day James essoigned himself, but the Abbat appeared by attorney, and a day was given them for 3 weeks from Michaelmas.

19 Oct. 1287. On which day the said James made default, but the Abbat appeared by attorney, and it was decreed that the said Abbat should depart sine die, and James and his sureties should be in mercy by writ as follows:—'Edward by the Grace of God, &c: to the Sheriff of Sussex greeting. Know, that inasmuch as the Abbat of Robertsbridge was summoned before the Justices in our court at Westminster to answer to James Paulyn in a plea why he took the cattle of the said James and unjustly detained them against gage and pledge, and the said James afterwards in the same court made default, by reason whereof it was decreed in the said court that the said Abbat should depart thence sine die, and the said James and his sureties should be in mercy, and the Abbat should have return made him of the cattle; therefore we command thee to cause return to be made of the cattle without delay, and not deliver them at the plaint of the said James without our writ expressly making mention of the said judgment.—Witness: Thomas de Weylond, at Westminster, 15 Nov: 15 E. 1.

Proceeding of the Plea against John le Rede.

On the quinzaine of St: Hillary the Abbat essoigns himself against John le Rede, and likewise John against the Abbat. A day is given them for the quinzaine of the Holy Trinity.

On the quinzaine of St: Martin the Abbat made his attorney against Ralph de Mosewell, Robert de Lem or Adam Roswyft, in a plea of trespass, whereon the Abbat brought the suffixed writ.

On the same day he made his attorney against William de Stokes, brother Robert de Lem or Adam Roswyft in a plea of debt.

Oct. 1286. Memorandum that Ralph de Mosewell took the Abbat's cattle in the vill of R . . . . . next before the feast of all Saints, 14 E. 1.

299 Prebend of Hastings.

27 April, 1313. Anno 1313.—Indic: 11, Pontif: of Clem. V. 8, 5 kal. May. Notarial instrument certifying that on this date, in the presence of Arnald priest of St. Prisca and cardinal, papal nuncio, John Bishop of Chichester, and John Abbat of Robertsbridge, came Henry de Garland, chancellor, and Robert de Leycester, archdeacon of Chichester, as proctors for the Dean and Chapter of Chichester by letters patent under their seal, and William of Battle, monk of Robertsbridge, as proctor for the said abbat and convent of Robertsbridge by letters patent under the seal of the abbat; and the said proctors for the Dean and Chapter said and proposed before the said cardinal—that in a certain amicable award which he had lately made and pronounced by virtue of a certain compromise or submission which the Bishop of Chichester for himself and his successors and in the name of the Dean and Chapter of the church of Chichester and of John Archdeacon of Lewes for the church of Chichester, and William called Young rector of Mondefeld on the one part, and the said abbat on the other part, made to the said cardinal, by authority of a papal privilege to the said abbat and convent, regarding a controversy which had arisen between them concerning the fruits rents &c. of a certain prebend of the chapel of Hastings and the curacy of the said chapel of Mondefeld—he, the said cardinal, in one article of his decree which begins 'we decree that of the said portion of the fruits and rents, &c. of the said chapel we have ordained to belong to the abbat the whole alterage by which we understand, &c.' as in an instrument under his hand and seal made, on the compromise appears, was deceived as to the value of the said alterage, inasmuch as it had been in that article assigned to the future vicar in the said chapel of Mondefeld and his vicarage charged with the payment of 100*s.* to the chantor in a certain chantry by the cardinal in the said decree constituted in the church of Chichester, and endowed with the said 100*s.*; whereby it would appear that the said vicar was bound to pay the said 100*s.*, and in common estimation the alterage could not in any year produce that sum. And they supplicated the cardinal to amend his decree, &c., &c. And the cardinal decrees that the said 100*s.* shall be paid by the abbat out of the fruits rents and offerings of the chapel of Mondefeld to the person who shall be chantor in the said chantry, at the terms fixed in the article above referred to: and that the fruits rents and offerings be charged with the payment thereof; but if the abbat shall fail and these shall prove insufficient, so that the bishop cannot well proceed to sequestration, that then the fruits rents and offerings of the prebend of the said chapel of Hastings, appropriated to the abbat shall be charged with the said payment and may be sequestrated by the bishop till payment be made. And so by the transfer of this charge to the abbat he ordains that the said alterage and vicar shall be free from the said payment, and that the alterage shall remain for the sustenance and hospitality of the vicar, and that the fruits rents and offerings of the chapel of Mondefeld shall be charged with the payment of 7 marks a year instead of 11 to the vicar, and that the vicar shall have no further claim upon the abbat, except only that the abbat shall assign a fitting habitation for the vicar who shall be first appointed and his family, and assign it to him and his successors. The remainder of his former decree is confirmed. The respective parties are to swear on the Gospels to the observance of this decree and to express their approbation of the papal privilege granted to the abbat: the bishop and proctors of the Dean and Chapter to renounce all appeals against the privilege and letters and appropriation, the Dean and Chapter to ratify these proceedings within 15 days, and the bishop and Dean and Chapter to append their greater seals both to the above public instrument and the present, and the abbat and convent to do the same.—Here follow letters from the Dean and Chapter of Chichester, appointing Henry de Garlaund chancellor, and Robert de Leycester archdeacon of Chichester, both canons, their proctors, dated at the Chapter house of Chichester, Saturday in Easter week (21 Ap.), 1313. Letters of the abbat and convent appointing William of Battle their proctor, dated in the Chapter of Robertsbridge, 9 kal: May (23 Ap:) 1313.—After this the said bishop and abbat and the proctors of the Dean and Chapter and William of Battle ratified and swore on the Gospels to observe the decree.—Of all which the cardinal commands him, Pontius Marguntquus, to make one or more public instruments and seal with his seal, and also the other parties. All the above things were done on the above date in the Bishop of London's house where the cardinal lived, in the presence of . . . arius de . . largus of Narbonne, Peter Raffini of Maine, Hugh Warknethby of Chichester, canons of churches, Robert de Kirkeby priest of the said bishop, Guill: de Villars, monk of the monastery Fontis frigidi of the Cistercian order in the diocese of Narbonne, and John de Midford public notary. Afterwards prid: non: Maii (6 May) in the same year, in the presence of the same notary and the underwritten, Brothers Jonas de Iclesham custos of the order in the place of the prior, John of Battle, cellarer, John of Lamberhurst, chantor, William of Battle, sacrist, Laurence of Canterbury, John of Watlington, Richard of Borstalle, John of Promhelle, John de Morgan, John of Maydstone, Gregory of Maydstone, Richard de Bocfast, Stephen de Hastyngs, John of Ledes, Laurence of Maidstone, John of Molton, Thomas of Battle, monks of Robertsbridge, assembled in their chapter, after hearing the instrument read, ratified it and sanctioned the sealing of it by the abbat. Done in the presence of Lawrence de Tonebregg monk of Caldra of the Cistercian order, Thomas Erchinbaut of Chichester, John Constantine of Worcester, Thomas de Ivelde of Canterbury diocese, and others. On 8 Id: Maii (8 May) in the same year, in the notary's presence, John de St: Leophard, dean, Henry de Garlaund, chancellor, William de Thesford, treasurer, Richer de Syddelesham and William de Estden, canons of Chichester, in their chapter have ratified and sanctioned the sealing thereof.—Concerning all which things the said Dean and Chapter and Brother William of Battle proctor for the abbat, desired the notary to make public instruments. Done on the said day, &c., in the presence of William Prik . . love, Richard Bartholomews, John Lynetun, Robert de la Grave, Henry de Lys priests, and Stephen de Whatelie, subdeacon of the church of Chichester.

315 Alan Abbat of Robertsbridge v. Ralph de Cameys.

30 May, 1317.

At a court of the gate of the Castle of Pevenese held on Monday the morrow of the Holy Trinity, 10 E. 2, the Abbat appears against Ralph in a plea of cattle taken, and says that on a given day Ralph took 3 of his beasts in the vill of Chidinglegh, in a place called Sabinelond, and drove them to the house of Walter at Gloustre and impounded them there till the bailiff of the gate set them free, to his damage of 40*s*. Ralph appears, and says that William Erkebaud once held a messuage and 60 acres of land in the said vill of John de Gatesden his grandfather, by homage, scutage of ½ a mark in 40*s*., a yearly rent of 6*s*. 8*d*. and suit of court at Friland every 3 weeks; that William sold to Robert Abbat of Robertsbridge who did fealty and suit to Margaret de Cameys, to whom the demesne came on the death of the said John de Gatesden; and that Alan, now Abbat, did fealty and suit to him the said Ralph as lord of the fee, and because he had never done him homage he distrained 3 beasts as he had a right to do. The Abbat allows that he holds the premises by fealty and suit but by no other service, Ralph puts himself on his country.

12 July, 1317.

At a court of the gate of the castle held on Monday next after the feast of the translation of St: Martin, 11 E. 2, in an inquisition made before Elias clerk, deputy of Robert de Sapi constable of the castle, it is found that the Abbat holds of Ralph a messuage and 60 acres of land by fealty and suit at his court of Foxhunt every three weeks and by no other services, that Ralph has unjustly distrained, shall pay the Abbat his damage, and be in mercy.

316 The Abbat of Robertsbridge and John Flecher.

331 6 Mar. 1332. Prebend of Salhurst.

Notarial copy of letters of this date from the official of the Archdeacon of Lewes to John, Bishop of Chichester, acknowledging the receipt of his mandate directing inquiry into the matter of the prebend held by the late John de Godelee in the King's chapel in the castle of Hastings (which mandate was dated at Ferryngg, 10 Kal: Mar. 1332 and in the 28th year of his consecration), and announcing that in pursuance thereof an inquisition was taken at Hoo, Tuesday next after the feast of St: Matthias the Apostle, 1332, in full chapter in the church there by William Rector of Warbleton, William Rector of Mundefeld, John Rector of Idenne, Stephen Rector of Cattesfeld, John Rector of Beckele, Peter Rector of Playdenne, John Rector of Watlyngton, Thomas Vicar of Ticheshurst, Robert Vicar of Bourghersh, John Vicar of Pesemershe, and Thomas Vicar of Hoo, who found as follows, viz: that the prebend held by John de Godelee called Salehurst and Odymer in the King's chapel of Hastings is not vacant because it is filled by the Abbat and Convent of Robertsbridge, who have the prebend appropriated to them: whether John in his lifetime held any other prebend in the chapel the inquisition is silent; that the Abbat and convent are the true patrons and possessors of the prebend which John de Godelee held during his life, that William de Echyngham last presented to it, that the life and morals of the party presented are praiseworthy, that he is in priest's orders, it is believed, and has a benefice elsewhere.

332 Prebend of Salhurst.

19 May, 1332.

Notarial certificate that on this date, and in the presence of the notary and of Richard vicar of Salehurst, Walter the said vicar's chaplain, William Jevene rector of Mundefeld, Symon rector of St: James's chapel next Seford, William atte Hese, Nicholas de Brome, and Richard de Ouera, chaplains, William Berewyk, John Curtays, John de Stamyngdene, and Robert Wogge, parishioners of Salhurst, there presented themselves in the porch of the prebendal church of Salehurst, William of Wynchelsee and Walter Crips, monks of Robertsbridge, and Richard Clappe rector of Westdene next Seford, as proctors for the Abbat John and his convent of Robertsbridge under a procuratory dated 15 Kal: Jun. 1332; that they there constituted Ralph de Vesci their mouthpiece, and that Ralph read a protest which is given at length, and which states—that the prebend of the King's free chapel whose revenues consisted of the tithes of Salehurst and Odimere was appropriated to the Abbey by Pope Clement V. with the consent of William de Echyngham then patron and confirmation of King Edward; that it was then provided that, upon a vacancy by resignation or death, the monks should enter into possession of the prebendal church and its revenues, the consent of the ordinary being first obtained; that the appropriation to the said prebend had been formally published in the diocese of Chichester, and that there was a public report of the death of John de Godelee; that Richard Clappe therefore, in the name of himself and his co-proctors took corporal possession of the prebend for the monks, protesting at the same time, that if it should ever appear that it was really not vacant but full and provided for by John de Godelee, he would give up possession on behalf of the monks without further dispute or difficulty.

366 The Abbey of Robertsbridge and Stephen Andrew of Rye.

30 Sept. 1359.

Grant to Stephen heir of John son of Gervase Andrews, in consideration of his release of a rent of 4 marks (claimed by him of the Abbey under the terms of the said John's charter to them, but alleged by the Abbey to have been payable only during the said John's life), of a rent of 40*s.* during the lives of himself and his wife Joan, and after their death of 26*s.* to his heirs, out of the manor of Fodiland and lands called Eglinton or Andrewesland, with power of distress. Dated at Robertsbridge, Monday next after Michaelmas day, 1359.—Witnesses: William de Echingham, knight, John de Ore, William de Haldenn, Robert Arnald, Vincent Fynch, William Taillor.

Seal oval, ⅞ inch. An old man's face, and legend.

367 The Abbey and Stephen Andrew.

Memorandum concerning the 4 marks rent; that it was paid to John son of Gervase and his heirs from 1270 to 1357, when Stephen heir of the said John harshly distrained for it, that the Abbat then referred to the charter and came to the conclusion that the rent was only payable to Stephen and not to his heirs; that the difference continued from Christmas, 1356, to the Thursday before the Nativity of the Blessed Mary, 1359, on which date a concord was made at Ikelesham; the arrears amounting to £6 8*s.* 4*d.*, are released to the Abbey, and Stephen receives a pipe of wine. This was done whilst Adam Wyse was Abbat.

368 King Edward and the Abbey.

20 Feb. 1360.

Exemplification tested at Westminster by Gervase de Wilford 20 Feb: 34 E. 3, of the process of a record amongst the memoranda of the Exchequer of Hillary term, 19 E. 2, as follows: The king by writ under the great seal of the 17th year of his reign, after reciting that the Abbat had exhibited charters to show that he had always held his lands and tenements in frankalmoign and free from aid towards the marriage of the eldest daughter of the late king, but that the sheriff of those counties had distrained for an aid of this kind, commands the treasurer and barons of the Exchequer to inspect the said charters, and if they confirm his statement, to order the sheriffs to remove the distress: this writ is tested at Ravenesdale, 26 Nov: 17 E. 2 (1323.) The Abbat then comes and complains that the sheriff of Sussex has distrained for 50*s.* in his manor of Sutton in the Rape of Pevenesye and the sheriff of Kent for 30*s.* in his manor of Lamberhurst in that county, unjustly, because he held his lands in frankalmoign under charters confirmed by King Henry, this king's grandfather, and quit of all aids of this kind. The Abbat produces a charter of Cecily de Avrenchis widow, witnessed by William Earl Warenne, William third Earl of Sussex, Gilebert de Aquila, Simon de Echingeham, William his son, William de Munceaus, Richard de Cumbe, William Gulafre, Walter de Denne, Reginald Giffart, Robert son of Alan, and Helyas Foleht, granting to the Abbey, with the assent of William her son and heir, out of her marriage portion in Sutton next Seford her capital messuage demesnes and pasturages belonging to this manor and 9½ acres of meadow also belonging thereto and a denne called Omble, with all customs and liberties appurtenant to the manor, to hold in frankalmoign. He then produces a charter of Robert de Crevequer heir of Lord Hamo de Crevequer, witnessed by Lord Fulco Paiferer, Lord Mathias de Hastings, Lord William de Northye, Lord Ralph de Eteringeden, Lord John Mowyne, Lord John de Suane, Walter clerk of Wynchenese, Richard Glindel, Richard de Legh, John de Kechenore, William de Snelham, and Hugh de Chodinge, confirming to the monks all the lands and tenements they hold of his fee in the parish of Lamberhurst, with the rents, services, customs, liberties, &c., to hold in frankalmoign. Also a confirmation charter of King Henry (3rd) set out at length (see No. 152), and a charter of King Edward (1st) tested at Westminster, 10 June, 21 E. 1, by which, after reciting that homage had been done him by Mainard late Abbat in respect of the manor he held of him in Lamberhurst, which is of the barony of Ledes, and of which barony Robert de Crevequer had enfeoffed him and his late consort Alianor in fee, he releases the said homage to Abbat Thomas inasmuch as it had been found that the Abbey had held the manor of the said Robert in frankalmoign, so that no homage was due. And the Abbat seeks to be relieved from the exaction of the aid. And the records are searched, and it is found that 50*s.* are demanded in respect of 2 fees of Morteyn in Sutton in the Rape of Pavenesye, as appears from the great roll of 16 (E. 2), Sussex, and the great roll of the third year, in the roll of compotuses, in the compotus of John Herneys sheriff of Sussex and his companions late collectors of the aid for Sussex, &c. : and that 30*s.* are demanded in respect of lands in Kent, viz. 20*s.* for half a fee in Lamberhurst in the hundred of Brenchesle, and 10*s.* for ¼ of a fee in the hundred of Rolfnyndenne, as appears from the great roll of 18 (E. 2), Kent and the great roll of the third year, in the roll of compotuses, in the compotus of Henry de Cobham late sheriff of Kent and his companions late collectors of the aid for Kent, &c. And as to all the lands in the hundred of Rolfnyndenne, the Abbat says that he and his predecessors have always held them of the manor of Lamberherst, and that they held this manor at the time of the confirmations by Kings Henry and Edward as also now in frankalmoign. And inquisition is directed to be taken whether the Abbat's predecessors held the manor of Lamberherst at the date of King Henry's confirmation charter, viz: 8 June, 37 H. 3, and whether the tenements which the present Abbat holds in the hundred of Rolfnyndenne were at that date and since held of that manor, and if so, whether the Abbat or his predecessors after that date altered their estate with regard to the tenement he holds in that manor or the tenement he holds in the said manor of Sutton, or whether they possessed by purchase or otherwise any tenements in the said manors in the said 18th year of K. E. 1, in which year the aid was granted, or any since other than those they held at that date. And the sheriff of Sussex is required to bring before the barons here in 3 weeks of Easter 18 knights, &c. of the venue of Sutton, and the sheriff of Kent on the same day 18 knights, &c. of the venue of Lamberherst, or before any one of the barons of the Exchequer if he shall previously come into those parts, &c. And the same day is given to the Abbat, and meanwhile respite is given him of the said demands. On which day comes the said Abbat, and inquest comes of the county of Sussex by Geoffrey atte Broke and others, as appears in the panel of the said inquisition preserved amongst the king's writs of this year. And the jurors say on their oaths that neither the Abbat nor his predecessors held any lands or tenements in Sutton 18 E. 1, or since, other than those his predecessors held there of the gift of Cecily de Avrenchis on the said 8th of June, 37 H. 3, and have never altered their estate, &c. And inquest comes of the county of Kent by Alexander atte Bourus and his companions, &c., and the jurors say on their oaths that the Abbat's predecessors held the manor of Lamberhurst on the said 8th day of June, and that all the tenements he has or his predecessors had in the said 18th year in the hundred of Rolfnyndenne are, and on the said 8th day were, of the manor and within the parish of Lamberhurst, and that they have never changed their estate with regard thereto. And that neither the present Abbat holds nor his predecessors held in the said 18th year any tenements there other than those which now are, and on the said 8th day of June were, of the manor and in the parish of Lamberhurst. It is therefore decided that the Abbat shall be exonerated from the said aid.

398 Prebend of Saleherst.

15 Sept. 1534.

Letters of Robert Bishop of Chichester, by which, after reciting that the prebend of Saleherst, otherwise the prebend of Saleherst and Udymer, in the free chapel of the Castle of Hastings, had been in time past appropriated to the monastery of Robertsbridge, and that a perpetual vicarage had been founded in the said church of Udymer, but that there were doubts as to the endowment of the said vicarage—he decrees with the assent and consent of the Abbat and convent patrons thereof, that in lieu of the endowments hitherto made by them, it shall be newly endowed as follows: 8 librates sterling to be paid by the Abbey by quarterly instalments to the perpetual vicar out of the receipts of the church of Udymer for his support; the said vicar to be entitled to all and singular the tithes, parson's oblations, offerings of the people, mortuaries, fees for marriages, churching of women, exequies, and roll of Sunday prayers, and all other emoluments, together with 7 acres of land known of old as vicarage land; the Abbey to rebuild at its own expense within a year a house fit for the vicarage there, and which is assigned to the vicar for the time being for residence; the vicar for the time being to undertake the cure of souls of the parishioners, divine services, the administration of sacraments and offices of a sacramental nature, and synodal payments, to find bread and wine and wax for the services of the church, and to keep in repair the vicarage house at his own expense; all other burdens ordinary and extraordinary affecting the church (excepting tithes and royal subsidies for which the vicar is to be responsible) are to be discharged by the Abbey. Executed in triplicate and the several parts are to be preserved in the said monastery, the chapterhouse of Chichester, and the custody of the said vicar respectively; dated in the bishop's manor of Aldyngbourne 15 Sep: 1534, in the 26th year of his translation.

Confirmation by Thomas Abbat of Robertsbridge for himself and his successors, dated in the Chapterhouse of the monastery 22 Sep: 1534.

The document is signed 'Rob: Cicest:'.

Seal oval, only a fragment. A Gothic niche in 3 compartments, in the first of which is a priest standing and holding in his left hand a pastoral staff, and in the second a figure, of which the crowned head only remains.

399 7 July, 1535. Edward Elryngton Esquyer to Thomas Abbat of Robertsbridge.

Receipt (in English) for the sum of £70 given him in consideration of his release of all his right in the patronage of the parsonage of the church of Udymer, and in the patronage of the vykerage of the same church, and in the church of Udymer, and the glebe lands to the same perteynyng, and acknowledgment that he is fully satisfied therewith.

Signed and sealed: on the seal a shield, thereon, between 5 herons, a fess dancette charged with as many roundles.

400 24 Sept. 1537. Thomas Abbat of Robertsbridge to William Pooke of Robertsbridge.

Counterpart grant of a tenement with garden annexed called 'le Bulle' in Robertsbridge street, and a barn and piece of land adjacent called 'le Bulloksfayerfeld' lying in the parish of Saleherste and tything of Robertsbridge, containing by estimation 4 acres, more or less, all of which premises were lately held by the said William of the Abbey by copy of court roll of the manor of this name; reserving to the grantor and his successors the profit of the field for three days in the year, the vigil, the day, and the morrow of the feast of the exaltation of the Holy Cross, being the days set apart of old for holding the fair. To hold the said premises to William his heirs and assigns of the Abbey, subject to the yearly rent of 4*s.* 4*d.* payable half-yearly at Lady-day and Michaelmas, suit of court every 3 weeks, heriot and relief. Power of distress, warranty, and appointment of Henry Upton as attorney to give seizin. Dated in the Chapterhouse of the Abbey 24 Sep: in the year of the reign of our Lord Henry VIII., by the grace of God, of England and France King, Defender of the Faith, Lord of Ireland, and on earth, under Christ, of the English Church supreme head, 29.

A small round seal attached.
